Right to Information and Information Privacy Access Application

Right to Information Act 2009 (Section 24) Information Privacy Act 2009 (Section 43)

This form is effective from 29 January 2020

Please read the following information carefully before proceeding with your application.

It is recommended that you contact the RTI officer in the relevant agency for assistance and advice before completing and submitting this application form.

The information you are seeking may be already available online, for purchase or by request:

Online – a search of the relevant agency websites may locate the information you are seeking;

For purchase – agencies may offer documents for purchase (for example: birth certificates, transcripts of proceedings, spatial statistics);

By request – agencies may administratively release a range of information upon request.

If you wish to make a formal application to access documents under the Right to Information (RTI) Act 2009 or the Information Privacy (IP) Act 2009 the application must be submitted on this approved form.

This form is available at www.rti.qld.gov.au and on some agency websites.

9. Financial hardship

Concession card holders - Application for financial hardship must be made in writing to the relevant agency. If you hold a valid concession card, and you are seeking a waiver of processing and access charges, you must show RTI officer your card (or attach a copy of the card to your application).

Note: Not all concession cards are accepted. Please contact the RTI officer to be sure your card qualifies.

Non-Profit organisations - If you have financial hardship status, you must provide the RTI officer with a copy of the notice from the Office of the Information Commissioner showing that financial hardship status has been granted.

Note: If you are a non-profit organisation and have sought financial hardship status under the RTI Act, do not submit this application until you have advice from the Office of the Information Commissioner about whether financial hardship status has been granted. If financial hardship status is granted, this status will remain current for one year from the date of the Information Commissioner's decision, unless there is a substantial improvement in your organisation's financial circumstances.

10. Payment of application fee

Please confirm with the agency you're applying to how you should pay your application fee.

Declaration

Privacy Notice: The information you provide on this form will be used by the agency you have applied to, to deal with your application as set out in the Right to Information Act 2009 or the Information Privacy Act 2009.

If you have applied under the RTI Act to a department or Minister only: Once the department or Minister receives your valid application, the date you applied and what you are applying for will be published online in their disclosure log. If the department or Minister gives you access to a document, and if the document contains no personal information about you, the document will be published online in the department or Minister's disclosure log, along with your name and, if another person, company or body will use or benefit from the documents sought, the name of that person, entity or body. The department or Minister may remove some information from the document before it is published –for example, information that may be defamatory.

If you have applied to an agency other than a department or Minister, documents which do not include your personal information may be published on a disclosure log.

I declare that:

- · The information provided in this form is complete and correct
- I have read the privacy notice
- Where applicable, I have attached documents required for the purpose of this application (e.g. evidence of identity, authorisation to act on another person's behalf, evidence of financial hardship status)
- If I cannot attach any required copies of documents, I will provide them to the agency within 10 business days of making this application
- I have included any relevant application fee/s (fees are based on the type of application, see section 1)

I understand that it is an offence to give misleading information about my identity, and that doing so may result in a decision to refuse to process my application.
